

ROBE-WEARING PROTOCOL

Contents

Faversham Town Council Robe-Wearing Protocol.....	3
Purpose	3
1. Introduction.....	3
2. Who Should Wear Robes	3
3. Hats.....	3
4. Occasions for Wearing Robes	3
4.1 Council Meetings.....	3
4.2 Civic Ceremonies and Events	3
4.3 Special Occasions.....	4
4.4 Public Celebrations and Commemorations	4
5. Guidelines for Wearing Robes	4
6. Exemptions and Exceptions	5
7. Review and Amendments	5

Adopted Date: September 2024

Review Date: September 2026

Faversham Town Council Robe-Wearing Protocol

Purpose

This protocol establishes the guidelines for when the Mayor, Town Clerk, and Town Councillors of Faversham Town Council should wear ceremonial robes. The aim is to maintain the dignity and tradition of the Council while ensuring consistency and appropriateness in the use of robes.

1. Introduction

Ceremonial robes are an important symbol of office and tradition within the Faversham Town Council. They represent the authority and responsibilities of the Mayor, Town Clerk, and Town Councillors. The following protocol outlines the occasions on which these robes should be worn.

2. Who Should Wear Robes

- Mayor: The Mayor of Faversham
- Deputy Mayor: When representing the Mayor or at designated events
- Town Clerk: When specified by the Mayor or Council
- Town Councillors: As outlined below

3. Hats

For the purposes of this protocol, any references to the wearing of robes shall also include the wearing of hats by the Mayor and Deputy Mayor. Town Councillors who identify as male should carry their hats, while those who identify as female should wear their hats.

4. Occasions for Wearing Robes

4.1 Council Meetings

Full Council Meetings: No robes shall be worn.

Annual Council Meeting or Mayor Making: All Councillors, the Mayor, and the Town Clerk are required to wear robes, especially during the formal election of the Mayor.

4.2 Civic Ceremonies and Events

Civic Service: All Councillors, the Mayor, and the Town Clerk shall wear robes at the Annual Civic Service.

Remembrance Day: Robes must be worn by the Mayor, Town Clerk, and Councillors during the Remembrance Day service.

St Catherine's Day Church Service and any other church services: Robes must be worn by the Mayor, Deputy Mayor, Town Clerk and Councillors.

Honorary Freeman of the Town Ceremonies: Robes are required for all Council members and the Town Clerk.

Funeral of a Serving Councillor: Robes should be worn by all Councillors, the Mayor, and the Town Clerk.

Cinque Port Confederation: Robes will be worn by the Mayor, Deputy Mayor and Town Clerk when attending Speaker's Day, as directed.

General Events: The Mayor may wear robes, when requested to do so, at events to which they are invited. Invitations are to be overseen by the Deputy Town Clerk.

4.3 Special Occasions

Visits by Royalty: All Council members and the Town Clerk are required to wear robes during official visits by members of the Royal Family.

Other Ceremonial Events: The Mayor may designate other occasions as appropriate for the wearing of robes, such as when hosting dignitaries, attending countywide ceremonies, or participating in regional or national events.

4.4 Public Celebrations and Commemorations

Significant Anniversaries or Historical Events: Robes should be worn to mark important local or national anniversaries as determined by the Mayor or Council.

Opening of Major Local Projects: At the discretion of the Mayor, robes may be worn when attending significant openings or inaugurations within the town.

5. Guidelines for Wearing Robes

Proper Attire Underneath Robes: Formal attire is required beneath robes. The Mayor, Councillors, and Town Clerk should ensure that their dress is appropriate for the occasion.

Robes Condition and Maintenance: The Town Sergeant is responsible for ensuring that robes are well-maintained and available for all designated events.

Wearing of Chains of Office: The Mayor should wear the chain of office with the robe at all designated events. The Deputy Mayor should wear the deputy chain when representing the Mayor.

6. Exemptions and Exceptions

Inclement Weather: If weather conditions are unsuitable, the Mayor may decide whether robes should be worn.

Personal Preference: Councillors may opt out of wearing robes on specific occasions with the approval of the Mayor.

Special Circumstances: The Mayor, in consultation with the Town Clerk, may grant exemptions for wearing robes on other grounds as deemed necessary.

7. Review and Amendments

This protocol will be reviewed bi-annually at the Annual Council Meeting or as needed. Amendments can be made with the approval of the Full Council.

DRAFT