- Police received a report on 20/06/25 stating that two roofers knocked the door of an address in Laxton Way on 16/06/25 stating the occupant had a tile missing on their roof and they could fix this for £50. They were allowed access to the roof and then claimed there was a hole in the roof and they could fix this for £500. A switched on neighbour intervened and prevented the work being carried out and arranged a legitimate roofer to take a look. It transpires the rogue traders have caused damage to the roof when they initially gained access. This is currently being investigated; however please be alert to this and if you have elderly neighbours or relatives, please keep an eye out for them and avoid becoming a victim to such rogue traders.
