

Medieval and Tudor Festival

New location for 2026 – Faversham
Front Brents and Town Quay

FAVERSHAM Medieval and Tudor Festival

27th September 2026

Town Quay & Front Brents
10am - 3pm

Brought to you by:

VISIT FAVERSHAM
KENT'S MARKET TOWN OF KINGS

Scan QR code for details

favershamtowncouncil.gov.uk

Join Faversham Town Council for a journey into the past at the Medieval and Tudor Festival.

Immerse yourself in living history with costumed performers, displays and demonstrations that showcase daily life, battles, crafts, and traditions from medieval and Tudor times.

A day of history, heritage and hands-on fun for the whole family, in the beautiful historic market town of Faversham.

Lawn games with
Henry VIII

Medieval sword play

Hands-on medieval activities

Axe throwing

Gorgeous period costumes

Medieval-themed stalls & displays • calligraphy medieval dancing • have a go in the stocks face painting • wheat weaving and lots of other hands-on fun!

Music, Dance and Entertainment

Town Quay

- ~ Have a go archery with Freemen of the Blean

Front Brents

- ~ Free axe throwing with Naughty Norse
- ~ Sword fighting with Canterbury Medieval Combat Society
- ~ Dress as a knight and take part in Knight School
- ~ Maison Dieu display – learn about Faversham's 13th century hospital
- ~ Discover archaeology finds from Faversham
- ~ Learn about Faversham's Charters and Magna Carta
- Theatre of the Small
- ~ Puppet Show – 11am and 1pm

Albion Green

- ~ 'An Audience with the King' by Henry VIII, Sir Loyal Heart 11am, 12pm and 1pm
- ~ Henry VIII's lawn games

Roaming Players

- ~ Raven Drummers
- ~ Merryman the Jester
- ~ Tudor lords and ladies

Medieval inspired food and drink