Land at Lion Field, Faversham

Public Consultation Event

ESQUIRE DEVELOPMENTS

Esquire Developments are hosting an online public consultation for a residential development of approximately 85 dwellings at the site known as Land at Lion Field, Faversham.

We would like to invite you to view the proposals, which include the emerging layout and emerging house designs on our consultation website.

You are welcome to view the materials and provide feedback to Esquire Developments and their consultant team. Any feedback received will be taken into account and help shape the emerging designs.

You will be able to view the material from the 2nd November 2026, and provide feedback online at:
